CLEANING AND DAMAGES

The venue and equipment should always be left and returned to the state that it was found. All large bits of rubbish must be removed, tables and carpets left clean and in the same state you found them on arrival, and tables returned to their original place and clean and tidy. Failure to do so may result in the charge of a cleaning fee.

CLEANING

If Skate World staff must undertake any unreasonable amounts of cleaning (for example spillages, carpets vacuuming, table area left in an unacceptable state, or reserved area not left to original set up), then their time will be charged for. This is usually a minimum of R200 per party group booked.

OVERRUNNING

As stated above, it is the hirer's responsibility to ensure all attendees of their event leave the facility promptly, and that all setup and take down are conducted in the booking times allocated.

If you do not vacate the facility on time and Skate World staff must wait an unreasonable length of time at the end of the booking before they can attend to any cleaning Issues a charge will be incurred. This is usually a minimum of R200 per party group booked per 15 minutes.

DAMAGE

Any damage to the rink or equipment within it, including loss of equipment will be charged at the Cost of Replacement.
